

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 OMAX CORPORATION, a Washington
12 corporation,

13 Plaintiff,

14 Case No. C04-2334L

15 v.
16 FLOW INTERNATIONAL
17 CORPORATION, a Washington
18 corporation,

19 Defendant.

20 ORDER VACATING ORDER TO
21 SHOW CAUSE

22 FLOW INTERNATIONAL
23 CORPORATION, a Washington
corporation,

24 Counterclaimant,

25 v.
26 OMAX CORPORATION, a Washington
corporation,

27 Counterclaim Defendant.

28 This matter comes before the Court sua sponte. On March 22, 2006, defendant Flow
29 International Corporation (“Flow”) filed a motion with related documents that, taken as a whole,
30

31 ORDER VACATING
32 ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

1 exceeded 50 pages in length (Dkt. # 100–102). On March 31, 2006, this Court issued an order to show
2 cause, (Dkt. # 123), why defendant should not be sanctioned for failure to comply with this
3 Court’s “Order Regarding Initial Disclosures, Joint Status Report, and Early Settlement” (Dkt. #
4 8), the “Minute Order Setting Trial & Related Dates” (Dkt. # 14). Defendant Flow subsequently 5 submitted courtesy copies of the documents in question. The order to show cause is
6 THEREFORE VACATED.

7
8 DATED this 4th day of April, 2006.
9

10
11 Robert S. Lasnik
12 United States District Judge
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26